

Our GDPR Policy

Clear-Education holds and securely stores your information in electronic format. All our data has been obtained through transparent business to business contact and used solely for the purpose of presenting career opportunities to you or making our clients aware should you be on the market for a new role. The personal data we hold includes email addresses.

With regards to employers (i.e. schools), we will only share the information with our candidates which you have provided and approved. We may store other details privately (namely contact details) which will only be shared with clients if this is your wish.

None of this data is ever be sold. All your data will remain private and only shared when your permission is given.

You do not need to do anything if you are happy for us to retain this information, however if you would like us to delete your email address and all other personal details please contact us and we will remove all your information.

We may use software tools to measure and collect session information, including page response times, length of visits to certain pages, page interaction information, and methods used to browse away from the page. We may also collect personally identifiable information (including name and contact details); comments, feedback, recommendation, and personal profile where necessary to run the website and provide a service. Again, all this data will be held privately and securely.
